

Last Afternoon of The Proms

Saturday 14th September

Ladies, Gentlemen and Promenaders.... The White Horse Chedgrave is proud to announce our first ever classical music concert. "The Last Afternoon of the Proms"

On Saturday 14th September the "East Coast Sinfonietta" orchestra will play a two-hour concert live in our garden. All forty musicians will be skilfully conducted by their founder "Mr. Frankie Ayers"

In true "Last Night" tradition you will be encouraged to dress for the event in red, white and blue and wave the union flag! We want people to throw themselves into this event with all the pomp and circumstance you expect from the proms as the concert culminates in all your last night favourites.

As a guest you will be able to opt for a special three-course lunch in our dining marque or enjoy a fabulous afternoon tea under the cover of our terrace or on the lawn, seated at a picnic table. All food, as ever, will be prepared by our talented kitchen team under the watchful eye of Head Chef, David Arnott.

Ticket Prices

- |                       |  |
|-----------------------|--|
| £5 per person  | Entry only, bring your own deckchair or blanket                  |
| £18 per person | Afternoon tea (Standard) a reserved garden bench and sun parasol |
| £22 per person | Afternoon tea (Premier) a reserved table on our covered terrace  |
| £32 per person | Lunch (Platinum) book a table in our dining marque               |

Tickets are on sale from the 1st July 2019 and can be purchased, in person only, over the bar at "The White Horse Chedgrave"

We have 200 spaces for this concert and tickets are strictly on a first come first served basis.

Please support this adventurous and imaginative event as we present Chedgrave and Loddon's first ever outdoor classical music extravaganza!

Simon Peck

(Pompous Prom Promoter and Proprietor)